War Controversy Slows For Humphrey's Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson gets his chance to pour some Texas oil on troubled congressional seas today as he brings partisans of the Viet Nam debate together to hear Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's report on his whirlwind Asian trip.

Humphrey and what Johnson described as his "mission of peace" to nine countries has also been pulled into the debate with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee seeking to question the vice president about the commitments he made, specifically in foreign aid.

Thus Humphrey, who returned Wednesday night, barely had time to shake the dust of the Orient from his shoes before stepping back into the center of things with his briefing of congressional leaders and Congress members most deeply involved in Viet Nam legislation.

From them have come the most vocal of the hawks and doves in the argument over whether the United States is doing too much or too little in Viet Nam.

Use 'Measured' Force
Johnson sought to ease worries of some of the doves Wednesday night when he declared in a New York speech that the United States is not caught up "in a blind escalation of force" inching toward a broader war.

Addressing a Freedom House dinner at which he received the group's annual National Freedom Award, Johnson said, "Our measured use of force must be continued. But this is prudent firmness under careful control. There is not, and there will not be, a mindless escalation."

Johnson's speech brought a cautious note of gratification from Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., a member of the Foreign Relations Committee whose hearings on Viet Nam have been the storm center of the debate. "I take encouragement from the President's statement," he said. But he added, "What has concerned me is we have had one escalation after another while being assured we sought no broader war."

Argument Still Warm
But despite administration efforts to cool off the debate and urgings by some congressional leaders that critics "curb their tongues," the argument still waxed warm.

Two of the Senate's most persistent critics of U.S. involvement in Viet Nam—Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, and Wayne Morse, D-Ore.—said they were going ahead with plans to try to limit Johnson's Viet Nam authority and thus try to force a confidence vote.

Their aim is to hang amendments on the bill now before the Senate—an authorization for an additional $4.8 billion to fight the war and which administration spokesmen say is urgently needed.

Gruening said he would give his arguments to the Senate today on his and Morse's proposed amendment to prohibit draftees—except volunteers—from being sent to Viet Nam without an act of Congress.

And Morse said he plans to call this week his own amendment to terminate or modify the 1964 Senate resolution authorizing the President to take any steps necessary in conducting the war.

Morse—who paired up with

Gruening to be the only members of Congress to vote against the 1964 resolution—has declared his amendment would give senators a chance to vote their views on the growing U.S. involvement in Southeast Asia.

Neither proposal appeared to have any chance for success but could hold off action on the authorization until late this week or early next.

Both Republican and Democratic leaders Wednesday, after a meeting with Johnson, called for less talk and more action on the authorization.

Sen. George A. Smathers of Florida, secretary of the Senate Democratic Conference Committee, summed it up this way in talking with newsmen: "The time for debate, we feel, is now over."

Convict Alleges Mossler Framed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A wiry, thin-faced convict claims he was told of a deal to try and frame Candace Mossler and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, in the slaying of her multimillionaire husband.

He is Virgil Nelson Halford, 29, serving a life term in Texas for raping a 9-year-old girl. He returns to the stand today for cross-examination.

Wednesday, Halford described a conversation he said he had with a star witness for the state, Bill Frank Mulvey, another convict from Texas.

"He told me he didn't know anything about the case. He told me he was going to testify to whatever people wanted him to testify about. He told me he had made a deal."

"He said he didn't think he would ever have to come back to the Texas State Penitentiary if he came down and testified. He told me if the defense would make it worth his while, he would sell out to them."

Sixteen days ago, the state put Mulvey, 35, on the stand. He related a chilling tale of a murder-for-hire proposition he said was put to him by Mrs. Mossler while he was between prison stretches in 1962. He said she gave him a $7,000 down payment to kill her husband, but the deal never went through.

Mulvey also testified that he found himself two years later in the same Houston jail with Pow-

Free Ride

DETROIT (AP) — A woman secretary who complained her city bus was "a decrepit piece of junk" will get a free ride to work on a brand new bus Friday.

Eleanor C. Schudlich, secretary to Detroit Fire Chief Glenn Thom, complained in a letter to Lucas Miel, DSR general manager of the Detroit Street Railways Department. She didn't identify her employment in the letter.

Miel said the letter helped him convince the City Council to buy 20 new buses.

"It's only fair that we show her the fruits of her complaint," said Miel. "We're going to send out one of the new buses to bring her to work Friday morning."

Military Overthrows Ghana Government; Fighting Breaks Out

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — Led by a colonel, the army revolted today and overthrew the Kwame Nkrumah government. It declared him ousted from the presidency.

The self-styled redeemer, designated president for life after Ghana won its independence, was en route to North Viet Nam as the army moved in. Peking Radio said he was being honored at a dinner in the Chinese capital. It reported no reaction to the coup.

What effect the army takeover will have on Ghanaian foreign policy was not clear. Nkrumah frequently supported the Communist line in world affairs, but also accepted Western aid in developing Ghana's aluminum resources.

Reports reaching Dakar said violent fighting was taking place around the presidential palace and that Nkrumah's personal guard has refused to lay down its arms as demanded.

The predawn coup led by elements of the second brigade was announced by Radio Ghana.

Fighting between troops and president's security guards was continuing four hours later in Nkrumah's Flagstaff House residence. Small-arms fire could be heard and smoke from burning vehicles and buildings could be seen from outside the walled compound which houses all Ghana government executive offices.

The radio broadcast a warning from an unidentified voice that "all ranks of security service must lay down their arms now and surrender before 11:30. Otherwise we will attack their residences."

Colonel Is Leader

The coup leader was identified by the radio as Col. E. K. Kotoka, 40, commander of the second brigade based in the northern city of Kumasi. It has been holding maneuvers near Accra lately.

There was no news of army commander Maj. Charles Barwah. Barwah was given the top army post last July by Nkrumah and reports circulated at that time that the move was designed to head off an army rebellion.

Roads leading to ministers' mansions were sealed and shooting was heard near the home of Defense Minister Kofi Baako.

Troops guarded the post office, cable station and ministry buildings. All phone and cable service was cut.

Jubilant crowds swarmed through the downtown streets of this steamy seacoast capital. Thousands gathered near the Ussher Fort prison on the waterfront after Kotoka's broadcast that political prisoners would be released.

The Nkrumah regime used preventive detention laws to hold hundreds of dissenters.

Nkrumah Seeks Peace

The coup came three days after Nkrumah left his capital for talks in Cairo, Rangoon, Peking and Hanoi on a Viet Nam peace mission undertaken on his own initiative. He is accompanied by a 71-man entourage.

Nkrumah is a member of a five-man Commonwealth peace mission set up last year by Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain to seek a Viet Nam settlement.

The Peking broadcast reporting his arrival there said his special plane was met by Chinese President Liu Shao-chi and Premier Chou En-lai.

The ceremonial welcome at the airport was followed by a parade through Peking, accompanied by the beat of drums and cymbals, the radio reported.

The Chinese capital was decorated with streamers and portraits, including a life-sized one of Nkrumah at a road juncture near his guest house.

The radio did not say how long Nkrumah would stay in Peking.

Kotoka's broadcast said in part: "I have come to inform you that the military with the cooperation of the police have taken over the government of Ghana. The myth surrounding Kwame Nkrumah has been broken. Parliament has been dissolved. Kwame Nkrumah has been dismissed from office."

"All ministers have been dismissed. The Convention Peoples

Detroit Mayor, Williams May Run For Seat

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Sen. Patrick McNamara's decision to retire from the U.S. Senate opens the way for what could be a party-splitting battle for the Democratic nomination.

If Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh and former six-term Gov. G. Mennen Williams both seek the nomination it could bring the most serious Democratic split in Michigan since the 1960 gubernatorial primary.

McNamara, 71, announced in Washington Wednesday that he would not seek re-election this year.

Michigan's senior senator, hospitalized off and on in recent years, blamed "relatively minor ailments" for his expected decision to quit. He now is completing his second term as a senator.

No Decision Yet

Williams, 55, and the 37-year-old Cavanagh, elected to a second term as Detroit's mayor last fall, both followed up with statements they would take a look at the situation before making decisions whether to try for the nomination.

Detroit's mayoralty is non-partisan. Cavanagh is a Democrat in private politics.

Williams, assistant secretary of state for African affairs, had indicated earlier he would run if McNamara retired.

Though stationed in Washington for more than five years, Williams has kept close contact with Michigan politics.

Cavanagh said he would declare his intentions in Detroit March 3.

He has expressed interest in the Senate race but reportedly

Cong Battalion Attacks Units Of 1st Infantry

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A Viet Cong battalion slashed across a minefield early today and attacked elements of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division in one of the heaviest Communist assaults against the GIs.

The Americans beat off the attackers with a barrage of mortar and artillery fire, killing at least 89 Reds and wounding 11, according to reports from the scene. U.S. casualties overall were described as light but some small units took moderate losses.

The 3½-hour battle took place near Tan Binh in the jungles 30

nists and put the rest to flight, a Marine spokesman said.

Down the coast, a Marine patrol spotted 20 Viet Cong near Chu Lai and called in howitzers to fire on them. The Marines spotted only six fleeing the scene and presumed the rest were either killed or wounded.

Despite heavy rain, American jets hit North Viet Nam again Wednesday, using radar in some cases to get on target.

Spokesmen reported, Navy carrier planes flew six missions at altitudes of 500 to 2,000 feet, pounding a highway 36 miles southwest of Vinh and a river ford 30 miles northwest of Donghoi, both in the North Vietnamese Panhandle.

Guerrilla Activity

Air Force fighter-bombers again raged over Dien Bien Phu, the old French fortress near the Laotian frontier, striking barracks, other buildings and the approaches to a highway bridge.

Small Viet Cong forces attacked two government outposts in the early morning darkness outside Quang Ngai City in a burst of guerrilla activity 30 miles north of the big U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division-Marine offensive on the central coast.

Thirty South Vietnamese militiamen withdrew without taking any casualties when the Viet Cong descended before dawn on their outpost 18 miles southwest of the provincial capital. A Communist company simultaneously blasted a nearby government outpost with 57mm recoilless rifle fire, but details of the fight were not complete.

The flareups diverted attention from the continued push by thousands of air cavalrymen, Marines and South Vietnamese troops in neighboring Binh Dinh Province. With the support of planes, artillery and the guns of 7th Fleet destroyers, the Allied forces have been attempting to clear fertile rice lands long held by the Communists.

Cong Flees

A U.S. Marine company battled another Viet Cong battalion equipped with automatic weapons outside Ky My, a village near Da Nang, 380 miles northeast of Saigon. With armed helicopters backing them up, the Leathernecks killed 25 Commu-also has been under pressure to consider running for governor against Republican George Romney.

Sen. Pat McNamara

Williams Backed
With the bulk of congressional and legislative support plus significant union backing for Williams, there has been talk that Cavanagh's forces are re-evaluating the senatorial primary.

Gov. Romney is favored to win a third term, though he hasn't officially said he'll run. Many Democrats regard Cavanagh as their best gubernatorial candidate at least strong enough to dim chances of any Romney landslide that could cost Democrats control of the State Senate and up to four U.S. House seats.

Cavanagh so far has said he's more interested in city or federal work than being governor. Last week, however, he met with United Auto Workers Vice President Leonard Woodcock, whose union reportedly would favor Williams for senator but would welcome Cavanagh against Romney. Woodcock also is a potential gubernatorial entry.

Teamster President James R. Hoffa is in Cavanagh's camp but state AFL-CIO President August Scholle said he's for Williams.

May Face Griffin

The Democratic nominee probably will face U.S. Rep. Robert Griffin, a five-term member from Traverse City who union leaders oppose. Griffin faces primary opposition but last week won "preferred candidate" designation from Republican leaders.

Griffin said he expected to face Williams. Most Republican leaders.

Murder Suspect Dies Wednesday

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — Eugene Newton, 39, who police said fatally shot his wife Wednesday and then turned the rifle on himself, died Wednesday night in Hackley Hospital in Muskegon.

A murder warrant against Newton had been authorized by Ottawa County Prosecutor James Bussard after police found his wife, Margaret, 37, dead of a rifle wound.

State Trooper Harold Tubergen said Newton shot his wife while she sat at a table having coffee, then shot himself in the chest. He said they apparently had been arguing.

Doctors removed one of Newton's lungs shortly after the incident and pronounced him in fair condition. Excessive bleeding forced a second operation later, they said, and Newton died shortly thereafter.

AMBULANCE ATTENDANTS carry the body of a parttime bookkeeper, Mrs. Ruth Dykes, 34, from the Miami Lounge in Detroit where she was found slain along with the former owner, Philip Laudicina, 45, and the night porter, Philip Hood, 67. Police said the woman and the younger man had their hands tied behind their backs and were shot through the head. An early morning patron of the bar discovered the bodies. (AP Wirephoto)

Much Talk But Few Candidates In Council Race

By CLINT DUNATHAN
Only 19 days are left for the filing of nominating petitions by candidates for the City Council—but the amount of speculation on who might run far exceeds the number of announcements of candidacy.

In fact, unless there are some additional candidates there will not be a contest in the city election to be held on Monday, April 4. That's the right date, incidentally. The first announcement of April 5 as the election date was an error.

There will be three vacancies to fill on the five-member City Council and so far there are but three announced candidates: Harold J. Vanlerbergh and Glenn Moreau, incumbents, have announced they will seek reelection for four-year terms; and Cecil Chase, a popular runner-up two years ago, will run for the two-year unexpired term left vacant by the resignation of Jacob A. Bink for reasons of health.

Seek Reelection
None of three have filed nominating petitions as yet, but the petitions are being circulated. Vanlerbergh has served on the Council since 1960 and Moreau from 1962.

Vanlerbergh and Moreau in seeking reelection said they want to be on the Council the next few years to see realization of municipal projects now in the planning stage.

March 15 (20 days in advance of the election) is the last day on which the nominating petitions may be filed with Escanaba City Clerk Don Guindon. The speculation about possible candidates has ranged widely in the community, and all of it has been based on the rather obvious observation that unless there is a contest, there is no contest and therefore no choice to be exercised by the voters.

No Decision
Among the possible candidates most frequently mentioned are: Mrs. Frank (Ruth) Neumeier of 1835 10th Ave. S.; Ed Cox, 219 N. 11th St., a former Councilman; and Arol Beck, Escanaba businessman and former member of the Escanaba Area Board of Education.

Each of the three said they have been approached and encouraged to become Council candidates; and they all said they have not yet made a decision.

Mrs. Neumeier has been recognized for her interest in municipal and local government affairs for several years, and was appointed by the Council as a member of the Escanaba City Charter Study Committee.

Cox served on the City Council for a number of years and was mayor for two years at a period in the city's history that saw conclusion of arrangements to contract with a municipal electric generating station, and to contract with the U.P. Power Co. for its operation.

Non-Partisan Ballot
Beck is actively identified with service club and music groups in the community and was a member of the Escanaba Area school board during the period of construction of the new Area High School.

Councilmen are elected on a non-partisan ballot from the city at large. To be eligible, a candidate need only be a citizen of the U.S. and a resident of the city for two years.

Nominating petition blanks are obtainable at the office of the city clerk. The petitions must carry the signatures of at least 50 qualified electors in the city.

The hold-over members of the Council are Mayor George W. Rusch and Councilman H. George Nelson.

The Council will elect a new mayor at the reorganization meeting after the election. The mayor serves as the presiding officer of the Council and traditionally he is the candidate who receives the highest popular vote.

Offer Fluoride Program For County Children
Registration for the Topical Fluoride program in Menominee County is now underway for three and four year olds as well as second, fifth and eighth graders.

Each child will have four appointments scheduled one to seven days apart. The program will be conducted during the summer with the schedule for each child mailed upon the receipt of the fee for each child.

Parents interested will return these to the child's teacher.

The pre-schooler's parents are asked to contact one of the following:

Mrs. Otto Kuntze, Carney; Mrs. Don Raboin, Daggett; Mrs. Elton Westman, Stephenson; Mrs. Don LeBoeuf, Powers; James Larsen, Wallace; Mrs. Wayne Teal, Bark River; Mrs. John Langerhausen, Hermantown; Mrs. Howard Allgeyer, Menominee.

Tax Increase Plan Suggested

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Walter W. Heller, one of the principal architects of the 1964 tax cut, has suggested Congress prepare plans for a temporary tax increase in case one is needed to fight inflation.

Heller, who was chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors under Presidents John F. Kennedy and Johnson, also proposed that Congress consider partial suspension of the 7 percent tax investment credit which he said has stimulated growth but is now becoming a source of inflationary pressure.

Heller and other leading economists participated Wednesday in a symposium commemorating the 20th anniversary of the Employment Act of 1946 which committed the government to the goals of maximum production, employment and purchasing power.

Timbermen Try Organization To Boost Income

A local group exploring organization and objectives of a Timbermen's Association in the Rapid River area met Wednesday night at Jack's Restaurant, Rapid River with N. J. (Nick) Kolinsky, of Watersmeet, president of and organizing agent of the Timbermen's Unity Association.

Eight timber producers attended the meeting and decided to go ahead with organization of a unit, said Kolinsky, but no decision was made on time. Another meeting will be held on March 2 in the Rapid River area.

"The feeling of the meeting," said Kolinsky, "favored affiliation with the four state organization that we have, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota are in the group."

"We have locals scattered throughout the Upper Peninsula and Wisconsin and a part of Minnesota. We're just entering North Dakota."

"Our organization has been active only about 90 days. We have held several meetings in the U.P. Our objective is to better marketing conditions for wood producers; to improve relations between the paper companies and the timber producers; and to get relief from the apparently excessive workmen's compensation liability insurance rates."

Union Efforts Fall
"We're definitely not of a rebellious, militant or violent nature. The history of efforts to organize wood workers isn't good. Unions have failed at least seven times in efforts to organize timber producers in this area."

Kolinsky said that his organization had been somewhat secretive in its organization efforts until it gained strength. He said that Menominee County woodsmen were the most assertive of all the areas contacted, but he did not identify any local of the Timbermen's Unity Association organized there either. There have been meetings of timber producers at Cunard, Stephenson and at Cedar River in Menominee County. There have also been meetings at Manistique and at Newberry and a meeting is to be held at Iron River City Hall Saturday evening, Feb. 26.

"What we are doing is developing new markets for wood to improve producers' income. The slow down of wood production has helped, because supply and demand govern prices."

Prices Rising
"Charmin has jumped the price $2 a cord. And Scott, which was $1 under Charmin, raised $3 on peeled popple. Price increases on wood before were usually in smaller amounts. We think that the need for wood is creating a demand and more realistic prices."

"We think that our problems of woods labor has been economic problems. The experts on the job were starved out and left. To bring in 'greenhorns' to replace them cannot possibly help, in the wake of failure by experts."

"If the price of wood is right there is enough labor up here to get out enough wood to meet the mills needs. No question about it. A lot of the men have departed the woods for the city, seeking larger income, but they aren't happy on those jobs. A woodsman is never happy in the city. As soon as he can make a decent living in the woods he'll hightail right back."

Calvary L.C.W. Meets Thursday
Rapid River Calvary's General L. C. W. will meet Thursday, Feb. 24, 8 p. m. in the parish hall. An interesting film, "Almost Neighbors," will be shown. The evening's program will be presented by Mrs. George Olson and Mrs. Lloyd Stenlund.

The meeting will close with refreshments served by hostesses Mrs. Alice Johnson, Mrs. Robert Bezzi and Mrs. Herman Stenlund.

UCT Club Plans 2 Scholarships

Award of two annual scholarships of $150 each by the United Commercial Travelers Club of Escanaba is announced by George Bathke, president.

Plans for the awards were approved at a meeting of the officers of the club and of Local 618 of the United Commercial Travelers, Warren Johnston, president, at the Sherman Hotel this week.

Any boy or girl student of Holy Name or Escanaba Area High School who is graduating in June will be eligible. An award will be made to one graduate of each school to attend Bay De Noc Community College.

The UCT Club plans to renew the scholarship and make it an annual award, said Bathke. He said initial funds are coming from the sale of the UCT Clubhouse on 23rd St. Escanaba's Cloverland Post of the Legion bought the clubhouse.

Rapid River PTA To Meet Monday
Urban Steinmetz, executive director of U. P. Family Life Bureau, Escanaba, will be guest speaker at Rapid River's PTA meeting Monday, Feb. 28, 8 p. m. in the multi-purpose room of the Bay De Noc Elementary School. Steinmetz will tell of the newly organized bureau's services. Program arrangements were made by chairman, Mrs. Jack Miller Jr.

Flouride treatment fees and enrollment cards will be collected by Mrs. Charles Doonan. Refreshments will be served by the first grade mothers.

Don Mattson Is Head Of State Employees Unit
The annual meeting of Chapter 58 of the Michigan State Employees Association was held Monday in the State Office Building. Election of officers and election of delegates to attend the 1966 general assembly, and consideration of resolutions to be presented at this assembly were the main order of business.

Don Mattson of Escanaba was elected chapter president. Other election results: Charles Bomaster, first vice president; Neil Carlson, second vice president; Norm Remington, secretary-treasurer; and Walter Radzivilowicz, Leonard Vader, Robert Timmer, Dick Harris and Bernard Haefgen were made members of the board of directors.

Delegates to the general assembly to be held in Lansing on May 14, 15, and 16 are Don Mattson, Norm Remington and Charles Bomaster. Neil Carlson, Dick Harris and Bernard Haefgen are alternates.

The board of directors will meet Monday, March 7 at 7:30 p. m. in the conference room of the State Office Building to finalize resolutions to be presented at the general assembly in behalf of Chapter 58.

Don Mattson Is Head Of State Employees Unit

The annual meeting of Chapter 58 of the Michigan State Employees Association was held Monday in the State Office Building. Election of officers and election of delegates to attend the 1966 general assembly, and consideration of resolutions to be presented at this assembly were the main order of business.

Don Mattson of Escanaba was elected chapter president. Other election results: Charles Bomaster, first vice president; Neil Carlson, second vice president; Norm Remington, secretary-treasurer; and Walter Radzivilowicz, Leonard Vader, Robert Timmer, Dick Harris and Bernard Haefgen were made members of the board of directors.

Resource Course Planned In U.P.

Fisheries and Wildlife—404, a Michigan State University natural resources seminar, is scheduled for Marquette in April. James W. Gooch says seven different MSU faculty members, many of whom have established a national reputation in fisheries, wildlife and conservation, will appear during four separate Saturday seminar sessions in April.

The seminar meetings, all to be held in the Marquette Senior High School, are scheduled for April 9, 16, 23 and 30.

Dr. Peter Tack, head of MSU's Department of Fisheries and Wildlife, will direct the seminar. Others to appear on the program are Fisheries and Wildlife Professors George A.

Polish Joke Book

It was inevitable and now it has happened. Some make-a-fast-buck fellow has published a Polish joke book and a city councilman of Hamtramck, Michigan's greatest Polish city, has tried to have it banned.

Councilman Zig Stachowicz asked the Michigan Civil Rights Commission to suppress the offensive joke book, "It's Fun to Be a Polek!", of which the Ludington News Co., has distributed 10,000 copies in southeastern Michigan. The Civil Rights Commission explained to Stachowicz that the guarantee of free speech by the U.S. Constitution made it impossible for it to ban the book, but the commission chairman said that the book was clearly not in the public interest and "openly defamatory in its treatment of the Polish community" and he suggested that other action be taken to curb sale of the book.

Stachowicz turned to Mayor Cavanagh (ask a rising politician to plead for minorities) and he turned to Jim Trainor, his press secretary and once city editor of the Detroit Times, and Trainor got the Ludington News Co. to send out a note to its dealers saying that they could return the books and get their money back. It would be difficult to think of a way that would spur the sale of the books more, but that's the way the jokes bounce.

Ivan Ludington, Jr., of the distributing firm noted that the book was selling well and being re-ordered and that the biggest demand was from Hamtramck itself, which, according to Councilman Stachowicz, was being so defamed.

Ludington said he didn't think the book was very funny; that its jokes have been going around the country for months and that "even the cartoons aren't very good." This detractor, of course, is going to lift "It's Fun to Be a Polek!" onto the best seller lists and Zig could hardly have done anything more likely to bring Polish jokes into public notice than to ask to have the joke book suppressed. In proper Boston the book publishers try mightily to get shakys books banned so they'll sell well and now in Hamtramck you'll have a dickens of a time trying to get a copy of "It's Fun to Be a Polek!" The price is a buck, or, as they say in Krakow, 25 zlotys.

The Polish jokes followed the elephant jokes in American sequence of humor styles, which have a very fast turnover now with the speed of modern communications. Hamtramck had better get rid of its Polish joke books pretty fast because no jokes have much staying power today. The fast buck publishers know this, of course, and they've already got an Italian joke book coming up. (One buck, or 624 lire.) With very little altering of text and the poor cartoons the same jokes could serve any such joke book because these are an old form which are not really associated with any nationality, but which are "dumb" jokes, showing humans at their dimmest bulb reading.

Some of the jokes ascribed to the Poles in the recent eruption of Polish jokes trace back to the Sumerians. Zig Stachowicz's effort suggests that the Poles lack humor, but many of the Polish jokes that we've heard have been told by Poles. Don Leonard, chairman of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, gets Commissioner Joseph Wisniewski to tell Polish jokes.

"Why does it take three Poles to change a light bulb, Wis?"

"It takes two to turn the ladder!"

In the last century we had national schools of humor. The stage—it was before the movies—had Jewish comedians, Swedish comedians, Germans, Italians. Their humor became offensive with changing tastes. With retirement of Uncle Tom the Negroes forced Little Black Sambo out of the libraries.

Before 1900 the weekly newspapers of the Upper Peninsula had many references to Dagoes, Polaks, niggers, Hunkies (Hungarians). Happily have become less derogatory. A report like: "A Swede drowned in the river last week" was a commonplace. They didn't bother to learn the man's name and even then Scandinavian origin wasn't an explanation for drowning.

We're with Zig, but if he'd use humor instead of the law he'd prevail more.

Brotherhood Anyone?

Brotherhood is an obligation every American has to every other; it should be willing payment for every free and healthy breath he breathes.

If you are a privileged American—well-off, well-respected, well-educated and fulfilled in your profession, how do you rate your brotherhood to the other American who enjoys few of these blessings because there is a difference in his skin color, his accent or the emblem he wears or doesn't wear.

Is your attitude or commitment to the cause of brotherhood just an afterthought, a fad, an intrusion, a conversation piece or a tax-deductible contribution?

Is brotherhood to you a matter for tomorrow's agenda, not today's; a reflection for the Sabbath, never on other days; a ruse or a never-was?

Listen a minute to the other American. To many underprivileged Americans whose daily lives are overshadowed by prejudice directed against their skin color, creed or ethnic roots, brotherhood is a desperate plea for basic rights every American in his heart should want for every other American. When the evil of prejudice casts a shadow in one's community or one's social life it takes courage to speak up for brotherhood. During Brotherhood Week and the year-round National Conference of Christians and Jews offers an opportunity to every individual to advance the cause of brotherhood and to help the other American.

Brotherhood means freedom of speech, equal job opportunity, equality of social life and education. That's why brotherhood is America's first and foremost business. For brotherhood is democracy at work!

Cost Of Eating

Americans spent more for food in 1965—about six per cent more—yet at the same time spent less.

The paradox is explained by the fact that average income after taxes was up by six-and-a-half per cent over 1964, meaning that while food spending increased in absolute amounts, as a percentage of income it declined.

The total national food bill was $85.5 billion, reports the Institute of Agriculture of the University of Minnesota. This averaged out to about $439 for each citizen. Averages are deceiving however.

Single consumers spent an estimated $675 for food compared to about $570 per person for a two-person family and $285 per person for a family of six or more. Americans spent another $12 billion, says the institute, for alcoholic beverages.

Revolution In Tax Checking

Taxpayer's Just A Number

By RAY DE CRANE
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — As Internal Revenue Service completes the switchover to complete computer handling of all income tax returns, officials predict this type of interview with taxpayers:

"Your Social Security number?"
"2 8 4 - 0 3 - 4300."
"Driver's license number?"
"A-274622130."
"Phone number?"
"Area Code 216, No. 871-6042."
"Name?"
"What's that?"
"Your name, please."
"Just a minute: I have it written down here somewhere."

This gag illustrates the dependence of Internal Revenue on numbers rather than names. The necessity for this is obvious. There are in the country today 1,400,000 income taxpayers whose last name is Smith. There are 900,000 Johnsons and 750,000 Williamses.

Keeping them separate with an alphabetical file would be impossible. A numbering system is the only solution. That explains IRS's insistence on correct Social Security numbers on every tax return that is filed.

Comparison of the reported Social Security number with the official tapes compiled by Social Security has disclosed that thousands of Americans are unknowingly listed under two and three Social Security numbers.

This situation has arisen when jobs were changed and an incorrect number was accidentally listed with the new employer. The employer then reported that wrong number on your next annual W-2 slip. And in making out a new income tax return the employee continued the error by copying his Social Security number from his W-2 slip instead of referring to his Social Security card.

The constant comparing of names and numbers between IRS and Social Security is helping to unscramble thousands of jumbled accounts. This, in turn, will insure that taxpayers will receive their correct benefits when they retire.

When all names and numbers have been verified—IRS hopes it is only a year away—taxpayers' returns will be mailed to them carrying a piggy-back label. (In some sections of the country this has already started.) IRS will insist that this label be peeled off and affixed to the return which is ultimately filed.

Some of the jokes ascribed to the Poles in the recent eruption of Polish jokes trace back to the Sumerians. Zig Stachowicz's effort suggests that the Poles lack humor, but many of the Polish jokes that we've heard have been told by Poles. Don Leonard, chairman of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, gets Commissioner Joseph Wisniewski to tell Polish jokes.

February Car Sales Run High

DETROIT (AP)—Mid-February sales of United States-built new cars ran slightly behind the 1965 pace, but still wound up as the third highest Feb. 11-20 sales period in history.

That was indicated today in preliminary sales reports from the four domestic auto companies. They reported 206,580 cars were sold in the period, compared with 249,347 last year and 208,898 in the comparable period in 1964.

Two major reasons for the sales dropoff were that the Feb. 11-20 sales period this time had only eight selling days, compared with nine last time and that the early 1965 auto demand reflected a heavy push by General Motors to make up for sales lost because of the GM strike in late 1964.

On a daily basis, sales per day averaged out to 25,073 in the period just ended, a year ago, the figure was 27,705.

One of the bright spots was the report that American Motors sales for Feb. 11-20 climbed to 6,344, a gain over the 6,206 sold in the opening 10 days of this month.

"Quotes"

It's an awfully disturbing thing that I've seen many times in the prison service—a mother and father, old folks, sitting with their son in a prison visiting room when they could just as well be at a ball game or a restaurant.

imately filed. Thus one major logjam in the verification process will be ended.

As the nation's personal business is transferred to magnetic tape in IRS's storerooms, vast quantities of information will be compiled in one source. There will be complete and official statistics on income and earnings, the nation's health as disclosed through medical deductions, investments as revealed through dividend reports, savings habits through verified reports on interest received and giving habits as reported on contributions.

IRS records will contain far more complete and later information than obtained by the Census Bureau.

With all this newly acquired and rapidly sorted information now available, IRS this year will begin employing a new technique. It will work this way:

An official in Washington will send a directive to every IRS district to check every return where more than a specified percentage of the total yearly income was reported as contributed to charity. Let's

Give GOP The Shakes

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — With the case of the New Jersey "Rat Finks" threatening to explode all over the place, the Young Republicans once again are displaying a curious capacity for damaging the senior Republican party.

At Trenton on Feb. 26, there will be formal public hearings into charges that the Rat Finks, an ultra-right faction of the New Jersey Young Republicans prepared and sang racist and anti-Semitic songs last year at parties incident to Y. R. conventions in New Jersey and Florida.

The hearings could be the most embarrassing episode for the senior party since the Young Republicans turned their 1963 national convention at San Francisco into a near riot. Efforts to put the lid on this one seem doomed.

This reporter has pieced together some of the evidence (much of it behind the scenes) which shows how seriously the senior GOP regards the matter and how turbulent the controversy is.

Senior party officials in the capital recently summoned into their presence the Idaho Young Republican, Mrs. Hope Kading of Boise, who last spring passed to her state party leaders word of the Rat Finks' songfest in New Jersey. She simply told how the chain of events began.

National Chairman Ray Bliss summoned the five members of a National Y. R. Federation investigating committee, named by National Y. R. Chairman Thomas Van Sickle, and told them he would not tolerate a whitewash.

Meantime, the Young Republicans' own national committee, meeting here in a 5-day leadership school, voted down a proposal to make their investigating committee hearings an open affair.

Pending outcome of the general inquiry, Van Sickle also declined to seek the resignation as a national Y. R. regional vice president of Richard Plechner, Rat Fink leader and former New Jersey Y. R. chairman.

The events of the next morning, Sunday, Feb. 6, were revealing. Van Sickle announced to the national federation's executive committee (more than 80 members) that Plechner and the present Jersey chairman, Clark Allen, would make statements.

Despite assertions that the two had only brief notice, Plechner read a written statement. In essence he pleaded "not guilty" to the charges, though the session was not a hearing and the Y. R. investigating team was absent. He got a standing ovation from many if not all those Y. R.s who support the group's controlling element, the so-called "syndicate."

say the figure is 3 per cent. The computer tapes will spin and the name and address of every taxpayer claiming more than that on his return will be typed out.

Then will begin the "eyeball study" by examiners. Should this review by human auditors raise a suspicion that the questioned deduction is incompatible with the taxpayer's occupation, income and other relevant items on his return, the taxpayer may be required to submit proof to support his claim.

The same procedure will be followed for medical deductions, interest and taxes paid, employee's business expenses.

And without advance notice the percentage figures will be constantly changed. This will provide a safeguard against the possibility of some insider confiding to a friend about a given item: "The allowable percentage is 2 per cent. Keep your deduction below that figure and you'll be safe."

"When is all this going to happen?" you ask. It is happening. Now.

Give GOP The Shakes

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — With the case of the New Jersey "Rat Finks" threatening to explode all over the place, the Young Republicans once again are displaying a curious capacity for damaging the senior Republican party.

At Trenton on Feb. 26, there will be formal public hearings into charges that the Rat Finks, an ultra-right faction of the New Jersey Young Republicans prepared and sang racist and anti-Semitic songs last year at parties incident to Y. R. conventions in New Jersey and Florida.

The hearings could be the most embarrassing episode for the senior party since the Young Republicans turned their 1963 national convention at San Francisco into a near riot. Efforts to put the lid on this one seem doomed.

This reporter has pieced together some of the evidence (much of it behind the scenes) which shows how seriously the senior GOP regards the matter and how turbulent the controversy is.

Senior party officials in the capital recently summoned into their presence the Idaho Young Republican, Mrs. Hope Kading of Boise, who last spring passed to her state party leaders word of the Rat Finks' songfest in New Jersey. She simply told how the chain of events began.

National Chairman Ray Bliss summoned the five members of a National Y. R. Federation investigating committee, named by National Y. R. Chairman Thomas Van Sickle, and told them he would not tolerate a whitewash.

Says: Zellic Schemes For Tax Break

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

Q—Will a pipe smoker who inhales as likely to get lung cancer as a cigarette smoker? Could smoking cigarettes cause pain in the chest? How can I stop smoking?

A—In one study, limited to men, the death rate per 100,000 from lung cancer among cigarette smokers was 127, among pipe smokers 39, among non-smokers 13. Heavy smoking is associated with an increase in the incidence of lung cancer, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, tuberculosis and coronary heart disease. Chest pain is associated with only one of these—heart disease.

Quitting smoking is a tough problem for most confirmed smokers. It takes a great deal of will power. Without strong motivation failure can be assured. Some persons are benefited by such psychological props as substituting gum chewing for smoking, self-hypnosis with the aid of a specially prepared record, drinking more water, getting more outdoor exercise and getting adequate rest so that nervous tension is reduced. In the last analysis, however, you've got to want to live more than you want to smoke.

Q—What is the difference between an M.D., D.O. and D.C.? Can a D.O. or D.C. do major surgery?

A—An M.D. is a doctor of medicine and is permitted by law to use any form of treatment he thinks will benefit his patient. A D.O. is a doctor of osteopathy. The schools of osteopathy have increased their requirements and broadened their scope in recent years. They now use drugs and perform major surgery.

The story on doctors of chiropractic is more complicated. In general they fall into two groups: Those who limit their practice to manipulations of the spinal column and those who do everything an M.D. does except prescribe drugs. This includes the use of X-rays for diagnosis; treatment with ultrasound, diathermy, heat, diet including vitamin supplements and colonic irrigations. In some states they may be licensed, not as chiropractors, but as drugless healers.

Q—The doctor says my husband has bulbar palsy. Is there any cure for it?

A—In this disease the tongue, jaws and palate are paralyzed and speech, chewing and swallowing are difficult. In some victims there may also be some weakness of the neck and shoulder muscles. The disease may be caused by hemorrhage into the spinal cord just below the brain, by a tumor in this region or by chronic degeneration of unknown cause. Treatment is unsatisfactory.

Dear Ann Landers: Several months ago my doctor told me I would have a baby in April—between the 12th and the 20th. This is our first child, so naturally Zellic and I are very excited.

A few weeks ago Zellic asked me if I thought I would have the baby by April 15th. I told him there was no way of knowing for sure and I asked him why he cared. He said, "we need the tax deduction." I was offended that he would think of money at a time like this but I kept quiet.

This morning Zellic said, "Why don't you jump off the table a few times?" It might bring the baby sooner. I told him that was the worst thing he ever said in his whole life. He replied, "Any time after seven months a baby is fully developed. And just think—you would get out of two months of lugging that load."

I am very disappointed that my husband is so insensitive to what a woman goes through to have a baby. Believe me I am not planning on jumping off any tables, but he is wrong about babies being fully developed at seven months, isn't he?—P. G. ARLENE

Dear Arlene: Babies born before the seventh month stand a poor chance of survival. Moreover, his suggestion that you jump off a table to get the baby here early and save a buck is absolutely shameful. Someone ought to tell Zellic that the April 15th deadline is for FILING. He missed the tax deduction on December 31st, 1965.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I have both read your book "Ann Landers Talks To Teen - Ager About Sex" (at the request of our 16-year-old daughter) and we feel that you possess a great deal of common sense. We want you to give us a word of reply to our question. "Yes" or "No."

It is not essential that you give reasons for your reply because there has been endless discussion on the subject. Your answer will be final.

Our 16-year-old daughter has been invited by the parents of her boy friend on a 10-day camping trip. Their son is 16, too, and has no brothers or sisters. It would be just the four of them. Yes or no?—ALL EARS

Dear All: No. And thank you for making it so easy.

Dear Ann Landers: Please tell me if you think I am losing my mind. I wouldn't discuss this with anyone else, but if you feel I need to see a psychiatrist I will make an appointment at once.

Whenever I leave the house I check the gas jets even though I never leave the kitchen without making sure that they are off.

Whenever I step into a car I make certain that I put my right foot into the car first. Somehow I feel this assures me of a safe journey. I have never been in an accident so I cannot understand why I go out of my way to "protect" myself.

Are these little peculiar habits signs of insanity? I need your help. — UNSURE AND WORRIED

Dear Unsure: Everyone has a few odd habits (the experts call them neurotic compulsions) and some make less sense than yours. So long as the habits do not interfere with your daily life there is no reason to be concerned. Signs of insanity? NO!

Do you feel ill at ease out of it? Is everybody having a good time but you? Write for Ann Landers' booklet, "The Key To Popularity," enclosing with your request 35¢ in coin and a long, self-addressed and stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped and self-addressed envelope. © 1966, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate

Mead To Spend $40 Million On Plant Expansion

DAYTON, O.—Capital expenditures totaling $40 million are planned for Mead Corp. in 1966, says Howard E. Whitaker, board chairman of the paper and paper products company.

The 1966 outlay compares with $34 million invested in facilities in 1965. Mead's 1965 annual report, mailed to shareholders today, stated that capital expenditures in '65 were 50 per cent higher than in any previous year in the company's history.

In addition to the $40 million to be invested in Mead facilities this year, three major construction programs will be in progress at affiliated mills in which Mead owns half-interest:

A $50 million bleached kraft pulp mill will be completed near Prince George, British Columbia, this summer, Whitaker said. The new mill will be operated by Northwood Pulp Ltd., jointly owned by Mead and Noranda Mines, Ltd., of Canada. Northwood has been granted harvesting rights to over 2 million acres of white spruce forests near the mill site. The mill will have the capacity to produce 625 tons of pulp a day.

$7 Million Plant
Another Mead affiliate, Brunswick Pulp & Paper Co., plans to build a $7 million plant at its Brunswick, Ga., mill to produce chemicals used in pulp bleaching.

In eastern Alabama near Phenix City, another Mead affiliate, Georgia Kraft Co., has a $46 million mill under construction. The new mill will have productive capacity of 800 tons of linerboard a day for use in the manufacture of corrugated shipping containers. Whitaker said the new mill is scheduled to begin operation early in 1967.

Whitaker and Mead President George H. Pringle stressed Mead's unprecedented construction activity throughout the '65 annual report. Among the highlights was the major part of construction of a new high-speed paper machine at Mead's Kingsport, Tenn., mill. This is one of the larger projects in Mead's capital spending program, according to Whitaker. The new machine, scheduled for start-up in April, will produce 200 tons of printing and writing papers a day.

Fine Paper Growth
"Kingsport's new paper machine is large enough and fast enough to increase our capacity for printing and fine paper production by 15 per cent," said Whitaker. The corporation has 22 machines presently in production of such grades.

Mead Containers Division, currently operating plants in 23 cities, will put a new plant in operation in Edison Township, N. J., in April. The new plant will serve New Jersey and the New York metropolitan area.

Mead recorded an eight per cent sales increase and a 15 per cent increase in total earnings in 1965, the company's annual report states. Sales were $548 million; earnings were $20.6 million, the fourth straight year of increased profits.

"Business continues to be exceptionally good in the first quarter of 1966, and all signs point to a good year throughout," according to Whitaker and Pringle.

Area Schools Given $3,527

Escanaba Area Public Schools will receive $3,527 from a $4 million appropriation by the State Legislature to help establish a remedial reading program in the school district.

Announcement of the grant was made Wednesday in Lansing by Thomas Brennan, president of the State Board of Education.

Manistique schools will receive $10,310 and Sault Ste. Marie $12,772 under the program.

The three Upper Peninsula school districts were among 27 districts for which money was approved for special programs to help students from low-income families. To qualify, districts had to show that at least 20 per cent of its enrollment comes from these possibly disadvantaged families.

Approve Application
Escanaba had requested $3,

931 in its application, which was approved earlier this month by the Board of Education and submitted by Superintendent Luther M. Barrett.

The grant of $3,527 will be used to "purchase equipment and materials" for establishing a remedial reading program in the Area School district, Barrett said. Some of the materials would be used by teachers to help diagnose reading difficulties and others would be used to help correct problems.

A summer developmental reading program was launched last summer by the Area Schools and will be continued this summer. Also, a joint committee of school and community representatives is working on a remedial reading proposal under Title I of the Elementary-Secondary Education Act under which about $86,000 would be available to the area schools if federal approval of the project proposed is given.

Develop Program
Barrett said the intent of the school district is to weld all of the various state and federal programs into a well-rounded

Christian Science:

Church Marking Centennial Year

Plans for a year-long observance of the 100th anniversary of Christian Science were announced today by The Christian Science Board of Directors of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Major events will include a world-wide public speaking tour by the Editor in Chief of The Christian Science Monitor, publication of a new book titled "A Century of Christian Science Healing," and the start of work on a new "Church Center" construction program.

The Centennial stems from events in 1866 which marked the turning point in the life of Mary Baker Eddy and began her pioneering of a world religious movement.

A spiritual healing which Mrs. Eddy experienced in 1866 turned her life-long study of the Bible into an intensive searching that produced the earliest manuscripts on Christian Science. She became convinced that Christianity is scientific in the deepest spiritual sense and applies to every aspect of human experience.

Plan Church Center

Later, she wrote the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," and founded a church which now includes 3-300 branches in more than 50 countries.

Centennial activity within the church will come to a focus at the annual meeting in Boston on June 6. Land clearance will begin that day for construction of an expanded 15-acre Church center, while members gather to consider their movement's progress and spiritual mission.

One highlight will be the speaking tour of the world's major cities by Erwin D. Canham, editor in chief of The Christian Science Monitor. His talk on "The Spiritual Revolution" is intended to further the broadening communication among religions and also between religions and science. The tour will start in Sydney, Australia, on March 1 and will extend through most of the world during the year.

Seek Understanding

In April will come the publication of "A Century of Christian Science Healing" which is expected to be of wide interest. The book will provide a chronicle of the development of spiritual healing, based on church records.

Also timed for the centennial year will be a number of new steps in the graphic design of church publications.

Officials are looking upon the Centennial observances primarily as preparation for "the second century" of Christian Science. They feel that the concepts of the religion — considered so revolutionary during its first 100 years — will be more widely and readily understood in the years ahead.

A Church Manual written by Mrs. Eddy provides the general framework, with a five-member board of directors in Boston to conduct the business of the Mother Church.

In Over 40 Countries

Within the framework of this Manual, complete local self-government is provided for each of the individual branch churches. They elect their own officers, set up their own by-laws, and make all major decisions by a vote of their own membership.

Today, the Church has a healing ministry carried on by more than 7,000 full-time public Christian Science practitioners in over 40 countries. Cases brought to them cover the whole range of humanity's problems and conditions, moral and physical, and they are just as apt to be dealing with alienation, injustice, poverty, or criminal habits as they are with sickness. Health is looked upon in its deepest sense as spiritual wholeness.

There is also an extensive network of public Reading Rooms maintained by branch churches; a Board of Lectureship that delivers more than 4,500 lectures a year around the world; an international daily newspaper that is generally ranked among the top newspapers in the world; a radio series that is broadcast over some 950 radio stations in several countries; an Armed Services ministry that includes 447 lay workers as well as commissioned Chaplains; and student organizations in more than 400 colleges and universities.

Holy Name To Present Play

"Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" by David Rogers from the book by Max Shulman has been picked for Holy Names' spring drama production. Under the direction of Brother Christopher, a cast of over 30 will present this play March 11, 12, 13 in Holy Name's multipurpose room at 8 p. m.

A modern comedy, "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" is about the problems that arise when the Army decides to put a missile base in a small Connecticut town. The people and the Army don't see eye to eye about this base and the many problems that arise have riotous endings.

The movie starred Paul Newman and Joan Woodward. The play doesn't follow the movie closely but it does have many similarities, one of these being the use of the literary and dramatic technique of flashback.

The play will be presented on Holy Name's built out stage with some added elements for the better viewing of the audience. The action of the play will take place in a set divided into three parts with the main action taking place directly in front of the audience.

The play has many different and exciting scenes—a buffet on stage, a pageant, fireworks, and a rocket launch, and they combine to provide interesting entertainment.

Newspaper want ads are a big sell! Eight hundred million was spent on classified ads last year . . . more than for all television spot announcements or radio advertising.

State Worries Over Fund Loss

LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University's worry over the vanished state land grant fund is that some of its other land grant school advantages might vanish, too. President John Hannah said Wednesday.

Among the advantages is an annual federal government endowment for those schools, this year amounting to $14.5 million nationwide. The $1 million land grant fund came from the sale of lands turned over to Michigan in the 1880s by the federal government. It was to be held forever with the interest going to the state's land grant school.

Glenn Allen Jr., state budget director, has said MSU still receives $74,000 a year representing interest on the fund, although the fund was spent in the 1870s.

But, Hannah told legislators at an MSU alumni banquet, MSU is concerned about re-creation of the fund, even though such action would not increase the yearly $74,000 payment.

The danger, Hannah said, is that "some bureaucrat in Washington" might point to the missing fund, claim that Michigan had broken its land grant contract and decide that MSU no longer was a land grant school. And, he added, "the land-grant universities enjoy certain advantages."

The fund became an issue only recently because the $74,000 interest had been paid out of the primary school interest fund

Snowballs For Michigan Tech

SAN MARCOS, Tex. (AP) — Students at Southwest Texas State College—President Johnson's alma mater—paid a debt today.

For two years, they've been receiving snowballs from students at Michigan Tech University in Houghton, Mich., to use in snowball fights.

Wednesday night's 4-inch snowfall in San Marcos gave the Southwest Texas State students their opportunity.

They shipped two boxes of 20-pound, Texas-size snowballs to Michigan Tech.

Buy and sell the classified way

until the 1963 state constitution abolished that fund.

Then, said Hannah, MSU was told there was no more fund, and thus no more interest, although the $74,000 is paid as a general appropriation.

Half Million Need Plates

LANSING (AP) — If you're one of the half million Michigan motorists who still have not purchased 1966 license plates, get ready for the "tugging match of the century," says Secretary of State James Hare.

The deadline is next Monday. Over the weekend and next Monday, "more than a half-million Michigan citizens are going to be milling around and pushing, standing in long lines in what could likely be miserable weather, and losing their composure," Hare said today.

And, Hare said, the uninsured drivers now are coming in in greater numbers to pay their $35 fee into the motor vehicle accident claims fund.

"For a long period, we were averaging less than one per cent," Hare said. "Our offices are now reporting that about 4 per cent of their business is with uninsured vehicle owners. And the trend is moving upward every day."

Hare said many motorists are scrapping old cars, most of which are in poor mechanical condition, rather than pay the $35 fee.

License plate sales as of Tuesday totaled 2.4 million, with a total of 3 million anticipated by the end of business next Monday.

Postal Police Warn Public On Chain Letters

Post Office Department officials warned today that a massive, fraudulent chain letter scheme is being attempted in this country, apparently by a South American resident.

Fraud orders are being obtained against the promoter to permit postal authorities to stamp the letters "fraudulent" and return them to the senders.

Billed as an "International Vacation" plan, the scheme has resulted in thousands of letters being sent by the same person to boxholders in at least seven cities—New Orleans, New York City, Cleveland, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Milwaukee and Pittsburgh. The letters, written in Spanish-influenced English, were sent merely to the Post Office box numbers. They cost about 6 cents each for mailing from Santiago, Chile.

Chief Postal Inspector Henry B. Montague said that the scheme is out and out fraud. Any chain letter that requires payment of anything of value is illegal under the federal lottery statute, Montague said.

This letter writer asks that $10 be sent to the first name on the list, which is the same in each letter, and that the recipient seek out five other persons to send the letter to after removing the first name from the list. The chain is to then continue. The promoter says it is possible to receive 3,125 checks of $10 each.

The six names and addresses listed by the letter writer in this case include a Bahamas address, a charitable organization in the United States, a deceased New York City man, a New Jersey fund, and a Chile resident with an English or American name.

First on the list is a Spanish name with a California address. Second is the Bahamas address. Postal inspectors suspect that three of the names on the list are actually the same person and that the charitable organization was added to the list to give the scheme an air of respectability.

The letter writer says that the initiator of the scheme is a Mexican who is now traveling in Europe with his wife.

"Don't be fooled," Montague warned, "these frauds never bear fruit for anyone but the initial instigators."

Sydney Ferguson Retires At Mead After 35 Years

NEW YORK — C. William Verity, Jr., president of Armco Steel Corp., has been elected a director of Mead Corp., Dayton-based producer of paper and paper products.

Verity's election fills a vacancy created by the retirement of Sydney Ferguson, a director and former chairman of the board of Mead. Ferguson had served on the Mead board for 35 years, longer than any other director in the company's 120-year history.

Born in Middleton, Ohio, 49 years ago, Verity was graduated from Yale University. He joined Armco in 1940 and worked at its Hamilton and Middletown plants and was elected president of Armco in October 1965.

Ferguson, who was chairman of the Board of Mead from 1948 until 1957, joined the company as auditor in 1919. He was elected to the original board of directors when Mead incorporated in its present form in 1930. He became president in 1942, and six years later was elected chairman of the board.

A native of Great Britain, Ferguson came to the United States in 1913. He worked in the firm of Peat, Marwick & Mitchell, certified public accountants, in Minneapolis until 1918. He was associated with the Minnesota and Ontario Paper Co. at International Falls for one year before joining Mead.

Ferguson was active in the American Forest Products Industries, Inc., and served as president of that organization from 1947-49. From 1952-54 he was president of the American Paper & Pulp Association.

In his tenure as an active officer and director of Mead, the company grew from its Ohio base into a national and international firm with 50 plants in 20 states and operations in seven foreign countries, expanding from a sales volume of about $12 million a year to last year's $548 million.

"Mr. Ferguson's services will be sorely missed," commented Mead's Board Chairman, Howard E. Whitaker. "His sound judgment and forthright leadership has been of immeasurable value to the corporation over the years."

HOW IT GOT ITS NAME
New York City's famous "Little Church Around The Corner" got its name when the pastor of a fashionable church on Madison Avenue refused burial services to actor George M. Cohan and suggested the "little church around the corner."

Trenary

Promotion
William W. Bucholtz, Trenary, has received word of his promotion to the rank of Major in the United States Air Force Reserve. He served during World War II as a B-17 pilot and presently has a mobilization assignment with the Air Defense Command, Kincheloe Air Force Base, and is attached to the 510th bomb wing at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base for training in the Personnel Career Field.

He has completed 23 years of service which dates back to the time when the Air Force was a component of the United States Army. Major Bucholtz is the manager of the Chatham Telephone Co., Chatham, and owner-manager of the Forest Theater, Trenary.

He is secretary of the Trenary Lion's Club, a member of the Marquette-Alger Intermediate School Reorganization committee and president of the Trenary Methodist Church Board of Trustees. He resides in Trenary with his wife, Phyllis, and two daughters, Ronda and Janet. A son, Bruce, is a student at Ferris State College, Big Rapids.

The University of Denver was founded in 1864.

Peninsula Potpourri

MARQUETTE—State Police raided the Veterans of Foreign Wars Club in Big Bay and charged the bartender, Robert D. Fox, 41, with maintaining an unlicensed liquor establishment and selling alcoholic beverages on Sunday. A quantity of whisky and $94 in cash was impounded during the raid. Fox pleaded guilty on the charge when arraigned before Justice George Fezzy, Marquette Township, and was ordered to pay a $50 fine and $10 costs on the license count and a $25 fine and $7.50 costs for selling on Sunday.

MENOMINEE—The Menominee Public Schools are no more. The Board of Education approved a change to the Menominee Area Public Schools to recognize the fact that several small districts have been annexed to the district. The Board set Monday, May 9, as date for a special $4,190,000 bond issue election for school building.

CRYSTAL FALLS—The Iron County Board of Supervisors has been notified that as of May 1, funeral directors in the county will not provide ambulance service. Action was taken by the funeral directors because of excessive costs.

SAULT STE. MARIE—Around the clock, three shift operations have been started by McNamara Construction Co. to meet winter work deadlines on the Poe Lock construction job. Certain phases of concrete pouring must be completed before the traditional April 1 start of navigation, when a coffer dam at the west end of the McArthur lock must be removed.

MENOMINEE—An anonymous $10,000 gift by a Menominee resident to "start the ball rolling" on the Great Lakes Memorial park and marina was announced by Orrin Gruetzmacher, chairman of the memorial authority. Plans include building a shipping museum and memorial park to Great Lakes sailors.

Hermansville

DAR Good Citizen
Miss Peggy Pouquette and her mother were honored at a tea at the home of Mrs. Martina Martineau in Marinette on Saturday. Peggy was chosen by the Hermansville High School student body and faculty as the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen for this year.

Mrs. Elmer J. Pipkorn, a member of the Port Washington Chapter, DAR accompanied Peggy. Each high school in Menominee county and the city of Marinette was represented at the tea.

Dr. David Pipkorn, recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pipkorn. He and his family are enroute to California after being in New York City to read a thesis at the Physical Society.

Another Big Drawing for a Beautiful Mink Stole will be made this week. Watch for announcement!

Rosemary Villeneuve, W. Thomas Fisher Wed

St. Anne's Church in Escanaba it's altars adorned with bouquets of pink gladioli and white mums was the setting Saturday, Feb. 19 for the wedding of Rosemary Villeneuve and W. Thomas Fisher. The Rev. Father Stephen Mayrand officiated at the double ring ceremony at 12 noon.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Villeneuve, 1108 S. 14th St. and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fisher of 512 S. 14th St.

Mantilla Panel
The bride chose for her wedding a white floor length gown featuring a bouffant organza skirt and long tapered sleeves. The lace bodice was detailed with a scalloped sabrina neckline and a triple lace trimmed removable mantilla chapel panel flowed from the back of the gown.

Her four tiered veil of hand-made finished nylon illusion was caught by a double crown of chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls and highlighted with aurora crystals. She carried a dainty colonial baka of white carnations edged with white feathered mums. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace with a diamond clasp, gift of the bridegroom.

Attending the bride were, Virginia Derouin, maid of honor, Cheryl and Bonnie Villeneuve, sisters of the bride and Penny Fisher, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaids. Peggy Fisher, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid.

Births
GARDNER — Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Gardner of 625 N. 13th St., are the parents of a son, Michael Todd, weighing 7 pounds and 12 ounces. He arrived Feb. 23 at 9:34 a. m. Mrs. Gardner is the former Laura Bergeon.

SMITH — A daughter weighing 6 pounds and 12 ounces was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, 408 S. 8th St., Feb. 23 at 2:32 p. m. The baby has been named Jennifer. The mother is the former Kathryn Whitburn.

WELLMAN — On Wednesday, Feb. 23 at 7:30 p. m. a daughter, Tammy Diane, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Q. Wellman of Escanaba Rd. 1. She weighed 6 pounds and 8 ounces and is the first child in the family. Mrs. Wellman was Kathleen Shannon.

YOUNG — A son, William James weighing 4 pounds and 15 ounces was born Tuesday, Feb. 23 at 11:45 p. m. to Mr. and Mrs. Willard L. Young of 518 Wisconsin Ave., Gladstone. The mother is the former Mary Burton.

LAFAVE — At 6:48 a. m. Thursday, Feb. 24 a daughter, Susan Lynn, weighing 10 pounds and 10 ounces was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne A. LaFave of 611 N. 23rd St. Escanaba. Mrs. LaFave was Linda Johnson.

Flower girl was Anne Marie Fisher.

Radiant Blue
The attendants were attired in floor length fitted sheaths of radiant blue peau styled in an empire line and trimmed with a beaded high placed band. They were detailed with detachable square court panels. Their matching blue braided crowns held circular veils and they carried colonial bakas of blue and white pompons and white feathered carnations. They wore pearl necklaces, a gift of the bride.

Serving as best man was William O'Connell and groomsmen were Glen Fleetwood, Daniel Villeneuve and Frank Stupak. Rodney Fisher was junior groomsmen.

A rehearsal dinner was given on Friday night at the home of the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brazeau, 1101 3rd Ave. S. Escanaba.

A wedding luncheon was held immediately following the ceremony at Kallios Fareway Dinette and the reception was held at the Teamster's Hall from 3 to 7 p. m.

Mothers' Attire

Mrs. Villeneuve chose for her daughter's wedding a three piece red suit with black patent accessories and a flowered hat. A corsage of white carnations and red sweetheart roses complimented her attire. Mrs. Fisher wore a two piece suit of turquoise knit with matching feathered hat and brown accessories. She was presented a corsage of white carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

Godparents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Villeneuve, Mrs. Adolph Gustafson and William O'Connell Sr. were also presented flowers.

Assisting at Reception
Assisting at the reception were, Mary Ann Deloria, cutting the wedding cake, Marvis Erickson, circulating the guest book and Carol DeGrand, Denise Way, Judy Beauchamp and Sharon LeMay in charge of gifts.

Out of town guests attended from Milwaukee, Pulaski, Neenah, Marinette, Iron Mountain, Nadeau, Flint, Negaunee, Oak Park, Ill. and Marquette. When the couple left on their honeymoon trip to Wisconsin, the bride was presented a corsage of red and white carnations. Upon their return they will make their home in Marquette where Mr. Fisher is attending Northern Michigan University. He is a graduate of Escanaba Area High School and the bride graduated from Holy Name High School.

Lady Bird Plans Dream Wedding For Her Luci

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lady Bird Johnson wants her daughter Luci to have a wedding to remember always as "a dream come true."

The First Lady spoke sentimentally and nostalgically in an exclusive interview Wednesday night about the forthcoming marriage of Luci, 18, and Airman Patrick J. Nugent, 22, of Waukegan, Ill.

"I want it to be as personal and as sentimental and as really hers and the family's as our life permits," the President's wife said feelingly.

The wedding has been set for high noon, Aug. 6, at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, the nation's largest Roman Catholic church.

Because the church can hold thousands it has been assumed that the Johnson-Nugent nuptials will be a huge, very public event in social Washington.

The guest list, Mrs. Johnson said, is yet to be compiled, but it will include only "strictly friends."

Luci has been busily planning already for her wedding and there has been much speculation about her wedding party, which is sure to include her older sister, Lynda, 21, and best friend, Beth Jenkins, daughter of former presidential adviser Walter Jenkins. A student at Marquette University, Beth introduced Pat and Luci last June.

Mrs. Johnson discussed her daughter's wedding as she flew back home from a long day's trip to Denver, Colo., where she spoke out for more beautiful highways for the nation. She said she plans to clear her official calendar for June and July so she can devote all the time "to my personal life—to try to put together a lovely day to remember—the dream of every girl."

The wedding dress will be Luci's choice and her mother said there'll be a lot of time spent on the selection.

Nugent, now on active duty with the Air National Guard, was described by the First Lady as having "a very good leaving influence on Luci. He gets her back to her studies and to places on time. A good solid person."

Mrs. Johnson hopes the two can manage to get away on a honeymoon that will be really private.

Luci is now a freshman in Georgetown University's school of nursing and Mrs. Johnson said both she and the President "want very much for Luci to continue her education and I really think she will, though maybe not at the pace she would have if she were living at home or in a dormitory."

Dispute Figures In Plea To Quit Passenger Runs

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A hearing on a controversial plea to abandon two Chesapeake & Ohio passenger trains resumed today in Grand Rapids.

The CIO is asking the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve elimination of daily passenger service between Grand Rapids and Traverse City.

The proposal was denied last Nov. 15 by the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC) and is being appealed to the ICC.

David P. Van Note, an assistant state attorney general representing the MPSC contended the trains enjoyed increased patronage since August.

Hiram T. Askew, general passenger traffic manager for the C&O, testified loss of a government mail contract July 1, plus declining passenger use, resulted in an annual deficit of some $202,000 on the run.

Boisseree denied a motion by Van Note to strike Askew's testimony but stated that railroad representatives should clarify discrepancies in statistics stated Thursday and those given to the MPSC.

Van Note based his motion on grounds that testimony before the MPSC indicated a lesser gain in passengers than did statistics presented to the ICC.

The figures vary by as much as 50 passengers in the period July 1954-December 1964 and July-December 1965 concerning train no. 25.

John J. Holden of Detroit, C&O attorney, indicated the figures presented the MPSC were compiled under pressure and contained a discrepancy that was unintended but went unnoticed.

"What disturbs me," said Boisseree, "is that no attempt has been made to correct them."

Wilkie's Son Eulogizes His Father At NMU

Wendell Wilkie's son assessed his father's role in history and attacked several American political figures in an address Monday night at Northern Michigan University, Marquette.

Philip H. Wilkie, the 46-year-old son of the 1940 Republican presidential nominee, was here to help commemorate the publication of "Wendell Wilkie: Fighter for Freedom," a biography by Dr. Ellsworth Barnard, professor of English at Northern, which published the book.

In frank and often laugh-provoking discussion, Wilkie leveled some bitter criticism at several of the leading Republican office holders of this century, but after the lecture asked that these criticisms be "off the record" because, he said, he thought this was a "closed meeting."

He spoke before a group of faculty members and students.

He was introduced by Barnard, who said he was indebted to Philip Wilkie and his mother, Mrs. Wendell Wilkie, "for their help and encouragement in writing this book over a period of many years." Barnard said they gave him permission to read Wilkie's private correspondence and to quote from it without restrictions, "and I think this shows more than anything else Wilkie's great qualities as a human being. I did not find one mean or petty or malicious statement about anybody" in the correspondence.

Remarkable Man

Philip Wilkie, an attorney in Rushville, Ind., who served six years in the Indiana Legislature and was an unsuccessful Republican candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, eulogized his father.

"He was a most remarkable man," he said. "He captured the imagination of many people as few men have. I think he missed a kind of immortality only by inches."

"He had the ability to sell on sight. I think he had that capacity more than any of his contemporary political figures."

Idealistic But Practical

"I think he was the most idealistic man who has held a major position in these times. Yet he was a practical man — not a dreamer, although he had the capacity to dream. He was not a politician in the conventional sense of the word. But he was not an amateur politician — he was an amateur Republican. He was the only citizen who was nominated for the presidency who never held a public office or was a general in the Army."

"My father was a devotee of Woodrow Wilson. He said he thought Wilson had more integrity than any man in public office in his time."

"I think he set out to remake the Republican Party in the image of Woodrow Wilson and only got the job half done."

Wilkie credited his father with two major achievements (1) rebuilding the GOP and (2) helping "in an important way to unite America in support of the fight Great Britain was making for freedom when she was standing alone."

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Larson and daughters, Carol, Karen and Cheryl and Mrs. George Larson visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lucas in Marinette on Sunday.

Mrs. George Larson of Danforth was among the correspondents who were guests of the Daily Press at a luncheon recently.

GLADSTONE

OUT OF CHARACTER—Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, whose public appearances are usually to further the cause of the nuclear navy, is caught by the camera in a less serious moment. Air hostess Barbara Hauge of Minneapolis, Minn., buses the atomic admiral at the end of a flying inspection of the nuclear submarine force in the Pacific.

France Fights U.S. Domination

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle's government is determined to keep France from becoming an economic colony of the United States, Charles de Gaulle, French foreign trade secretary said Wednesday.

Chambrun told The Associated Press that this concern helps explain French stockpiling of American gold, close bargaining in the Common Market, the fruitlessness of the Kennedy Round of tariff negotiations and even the costly French program of atomic research.

"We could permit a much larger American presence in our economy, as the Germans are doing, and it would be easy politically; there would be more jobs and faster growth," he said.

"But to be politically responsible to the generations to come, we have to see that these generations have the weapons to defend themselves — economic weapons."

"If we did nothing, in a few years we would have the same problems as Latin America has. The idea has taken hold in American financial circles that the way to take care of the United States' favorable balance of trade with France is to export capital. This is a policy whereby we could become a medium-developed country in the future."

"This explains our attitude on gold. We don't want to take America's gold, we just want to stop the overabundance of American capital in France."

All of the estimated $1.5-billion U.S. investment in France is not unwelcome. Chambrun cited the large operation of International Business Machines as an example.

"IBM does a lot of research here," he said, "and in all it helps raise the general technological level of French industry."

Chambrun is a member of the opposition Catholic Popular Republican Movement. But, he says, "I've always been a Gaullist." He joined the President's Cabinet last month.

In This Corner

with Ray Crandall

Jeff Jurmu, former Escanaba High School middle distance runner, has been appointed sports co-editor of the Northern Michigan University "Northern News" . . . Jurmu is majoring in political science with a minor in journalism in a pre-law course.

Heading into the final weekend of the regular season, Great Lakes Conference basketball teams have won more than they lost in outside competition . . . Great Lakes quint has notched 24 victories against 20 defeats and the only team that has been unable to win against non-conference opposition is Marquette, loser of five straight games . . . Manistique offsets that with a 5-0 non-loop record . . . The home court record in all games played is 51 victories against 32 defeats . . . The figure in the conference is 24-16.

The Marquette Iron Rangers slipped out of second place in the United States Hockey League race over the weekend by bowing twice to St. Paul, 6-3 and 5-3 . . . Green Bay cut down front running Waterloo, 5-3 and 4-2 in other weekend action . . . Rochester invades Marquette for a pair of games this weekend, Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Con Zagodzinski, former Holy Name athlete, tossed in 17 points as the Wildcats whipped Ferris, 117-63 . . . The 6 foot 5 inch junior also plucked 12 rebounds from the boards as Northern posted its 15th victory in 19 starts . . . Yago now has 274 points and 193 rebounds entering Northern's regular season finale with the Air Force Academy Saturday night.

In the annual junior high school basketball tournament at Stephenson this week, Powers-Spalding, Wallace, Norway and Stephenson notched victories and will advance to semifinal action tonight . . . Tonight's winners will meet for the championship Saturday night at the Stephenson gym . . . Top scorers in the first round games was Richard Smith of Powers-Spalding who fired in 34 points as his team downed Carney, 58-29.

Pistons Get Needed Rest

By The Associated Press

The Detroit Pistons have got a couple of days of rest. They can use it.

Starting Saturday, when they play host to Los Angeles, the Pistons, cellar dwellers in the National Basketball Association's Western Division, play five games in five nights.

And they'll have to do better against L.A., No. 1 in the Western Division, than they did at Baltimore Wednesday night against the New York Knicks, the bottom team in the east.

Substitute guard Emmette Bryant, who played just 14 minutes for the Knicks, scored 14 points—including the last six for his squad—as New York took a cliffhanging victory, 100-98.

Philadelphia lost to Baltimore 119-115 and Los Angeles whipped Cincinnati 140-133 in the other NBA games.

Trailing by 10 with 6:27 to play, the Pistons pulled to within a point, 94-93, at 1:20. But two Bryant field goals offset a freethrow by Joe Strawder and with 20 seconds left, the scoreboard said 98-94.

Ray Scott sank a two-pointer for Detroit which was balanced by two foul shots by Bryant. Eddie Miles pulled the Pistons back to within two points, but a long shot by Miles bounced off the rim as time ran out.

Walt Bellamy scored 19 points to lead the Knicks, who have won three in a row and 11 of their last 14. The Pistons, who hit only 18 of 35 free throws, were led by Miles and player-coach Dave DeBusschere with 17 each.

In the second game of the Baltimore twinnish, the Bullets held NBA all-time scoring leader

Wilt Chamberlain to only 20 points and a mere 11 field goal tries.

But Chamberlain's 10-assist, 31-rebound effort was a big contribution to Philadelphia's losing cause.

Hal Greer led the 76ers with 37, and Don Ohl tossed in 23 for Baltimore.

The Lakers' victory over Cincinnati snapped a three-game losing streak and enabled the western division leaders to remain 4½ games ahead of Baltimore.

Elgin Baylor's shooting helped Baltimore lead, Baylor got 14 of his 35 points in the final period and led the club in scoring. Oscar Robertson was high for Cincinnati with 39.

Rock Tourney Pairings Set

ROCK—Pairings for the Class D district tournament to be staged here next week were announced today by George Weingartner, tourney manager.

The host Rock Little Giants drew Rapid River, current Central League champion, in the opener Wednesday night at 8.

Two games will be played Friday with Tenney facing Eben at 7 and the Rock-Rapid River winner meeting Perkins at 8:30. The championship game will be played Saturday night at 8.

Winner of the district title will advance to a regional at St. Ignace the following week.

The Great Northern basketball conference, operating this year for the first time as the Upper Peninsula's newest prep league, has produced a race to the wire.

The league cage crown will be decided Friday on the final night of the regular season.

Coach Guss Lord's Stephenson Eagles are in the driver's seat and can capture sole possession of the 1966 title by defeating the lowly Kingsford Flippers at Stephenson Friday night.

However, if the Eagles fold in their finale they will be forced to share the championship with Menominee. The Maroons have already finished their conference schedule with a 6-2 record. Stephenson is 6-1 entering the Friday night wind-up.

Escanaba will remain in third place no matter what happens on the last weekend. The Eskymos missed an opportunity to send the race into a final three-way tie when they were nipped by Stephenson, 64-60, Tuesday night. Escanaba has a 5-3 GNC mark.

Kingsford climbed into fourth place this week by edging Iron Mountain, 56-55.

Coach John Butrymowicz will send his Holy Name quint against Iron Mountain in a home stand in the other conference contest Friday night. The Crusaders will get their last chance to capture a victory this season. The teams will be meeting for the first time. Holy Name has lost 17 straight starts, including seven in the conference. Iron Mountain enters the game with a 1-4 conference record and a 4-11 overall mark.

Menominee's Jim Uecke and Pat Miller continue to lead the conference in scoring and rebounding, according to the league statistics released today by Ken Peterson covering games through Feb. 19.

Uecke is the top scorer with 168 points followed by Miller with 138. Miller is the top rebounder with 114 followed by Uecke with 101.

Young Pitchers Dot Tiger Camp

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Satisfaction was evident in the Detroit Tigers' camp Wednesday as most of the remaining pitchers and catchers arrived for the start of regular spring drill.

One of the 21 pitchers and five catchers slated to report today will be missing, however. Because of personal reasons, rookie left-hander Fritz Fisher was granted a few extra days off before reporting.

Fisher, former University of Michigan ace who was 14-6 at Montgomery last year, returned his signed contract Wednesday, leaving just four players out of the fold for the 1966 American League campaign.

"I am very satisfied with early camp this year," said James A. Campbell, vice president and general manager. "It reminds me a lot of the camp we had two or three years ago when we had about a dozen good young pitchers and came up with Mickey Lolich, Denny McLaine and Joe Sparrina."

"It's getting to a point where you have to have from 10 to 12 good looking young pitchers every year to get the three you need in a couple of years to fill gaps in your staff."

"Two years ago I thought we had a couple of dandies in Larry Foster (who was signed out of Michigan State) and Doug Gallagher. But neither produced like we felt they could. Happily, we did get three starters out of that bunch and still have Fisher."

Manager Charlie Dressen joined in the conversation after giving another young hurler a few points. He said he would not venture a guess as to how many of the present group would make it to the majors in the next few years.

"All I'll say is that we have got some good young arms here. We'll let them prove themselves in the exhibition games," he said.

The second straight day of rain forced cancellation of the scheduled rookie game Wednesday. A forecast of more showers brought about the possibility that the first drill for the regulars would be held in the converted hangar at Tigertown today.

Two of the unsigned players are pitchers Julio Navarro and Bill Graham. Navarro reportedly is not satisfied with the contract offered him.

First baseman Norm Cash and outfielder Don Demeter also are unsigned but they will not be considered holdouts unless they do not come to terms by next Wednesday, March 2, when the remainder of the squad is due to report.

Esky Fighters Lose Decisions

All three Escanaba boxers in action in the Fond du Lac district Golden Gloves tournament were eliminated Wednesday night.

Welterweight Wayne Smoot, who had won two bouts in opening action Saturday night, dropped a decision to Alan Boivin of Neopit.

Mike Tryan, 112, bowed by a decision to Wayne Wynos of Neopit.

Mike Weber, 160, suffered a TKO at the hands of Jerry Smith, Neopit.

The lone remaining Escanaba boxer in the tournament is Terry Sovey, 135 pound open division, who will fight in semifinal action Saturday night.

Emeralds Get Tourney Bye Into Finals

Coach Rudie Brandstrom's Manistique Emeralds drew a bye in the Class B tournament pairings and will advance directly to the finals Saturday, March 5, at 7:30 p.m. at Rudyard.

Meeting for the right to face Manistique in the finals will be Newberry and Rudyard. They will clash Thursday, March 3, at 7:30 p.m.

The district champion will advance to the U.P. regional at Northern Michigan University the following week.

Aquinas Beats Detroit Quint

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Aquinas downed Detroit College of Business 109-90 Wednesday night in a nonconference basketball game.

Dennis Alexander led Aquinas with 39 points, Henry Pickett led the Detroiters with 27. Aquinas is 11-11 for the season, Detroit College is 11-14.

Waste No Time

Eight Teams Land Berths In College Cage Tourney

By The Associated Press

The NCAA didn't waste any time filling its field for next month's postseason tournament that determines the national collegiate basketball champion.

Within a few hours after the starting time Wednesday to make selections, the NCAA had landed eight at-large teams, including Texas Western, Chicago Loyola and Providence from The Associated Press Top Ten, to round out its 23-team field.

The NIT, the other major postseason tourney, announced the selection of five teams, headed by defending champion St. John's of New York, leaving nine still to be named for its 14-team field.

In addition to unbeaten Texas Western, 20-0, third in The AP poll, fourth-ranked Chicago Loyola, 20-2, and ninth-ranked Providence, 20-3; Oklahoma City, 21-4; Houston, 19-4; Dayton, 19-4; Syracuse, 18-4, and Colorado State U., 12-6, were tapped for the NCAA that opens March 7 and ends March 19.

Western Kentucky, 20-2, the Ohio Valley Conference champion, and the still-to-be determined winners of 14 other conferences complete the NCAA field.

York March 10 and ends Saturday afternoon, March 19.

Chicago Loyola is pitted against Western Kentucky at Kent, Ohio, in one of the first-round games at four regional sites that kick off the NCAA on March 7. This game will follow one between Dayton and the winner of the Mid-American Conference, Toledo or Miami of Ohio.

Pairings for the other March 7 first-round games:

At Philadelphia: Southern Conference champion vs. Yankee Conference champion. Syracuse vs. Ivy League champion, with proviso that if Penn wins the Ivy, game will be shifted to Blacksburg, Va., March 8.

At Wichita, Kan. — Texas Western vs. Oklahoma City. Houston vs. Colorado State U.

At Blacksburg, Va., March 8

West Branch Bridge Planned

The Schoolcraft Road Commission has approved construction of a crescent timber bridge with 20-foot roadway over the West Branch, on County Road 448.

Plans will be drawn and materials assembled for the 74-foot long structure. The work will cost about $14,000 and will be done when water levels are down, probably in July.

The Commission, at its meeting Tuesday night, also approved attendance at the 51st annual Michigan Highway conference in Grand Rapids March 8-10.

Big 'Burbot' Caught In Twin Lake

A 25-inch "burbot" or lawyer fish (also called a ling or freshwater cod) was caught by Andrew Anderson of Newberry from Twin Lake in Luce County.

The Feb. 17 catch is unusually large for inland waters, though it is common in the Great Lakes and tributary streams.

It spawns under ice in February, on sand and gravel in stream bottoms. A large female may produce a million eggs. It is regarded as very good food, and is a rich source of vitamins A and D, despite its disgusting appearance, the Conservation Department reports.

Ice conditions have been good for fishing, except in the Shallow area of the Upper St. Mary's River. Fishing for rainbow and brown trout ends Feb. 28. It ends then also on muskellunge and northern pike, except on the St. Mary's River. Walleye may be taken until March 15, except on the St. Mary's where they may be taken any time.

Northern pike fishing, in which most are taken by spearing, is down compared to the early part of the season. Some have been taken on Millecoquins Lake. Millecoquin water is reported "roily." Nice pike have been taken in Les Cheneaux channels, Carp and Frenchman's lakes, Kak's and Manitistique lakes, and Indian Lake. An abrupt weather change could improve this fishing.

"Stub" Wheeler of McMillan speared a 17-pound northern Feb. 7 and Christy Skidmore of Curtis a 19-pound northern Feb. 14, from Big Manitistique Lake.

A few walleye are being taken from Carp Lake and Indian Lake. Good catches of yellow perch are reported from Upper Raber Bay and Bass Lake in Luce County. East Lake in Mackinac County is producing perch in the 11 and 12-inch class. Fair catches are reported from Les Cheneaux channels, where wigglers are preferred bait. A few "jumbos" were taken in Millecoquins Lake.

Whitefish and herring fishing has dropped considerably in the "Shallows" area of the Upper St. Mary's due to poor ice conditions, but this is improving, especially in Mosquito Bay, where nice catches have been reported.

Numerous small cisco were taken in Ostrander Bay on Big Manitistique Lake and a few jumbos were caught in Whitefish Lake, off Wrights at Curtis.

From Frank Lake of Luce County, nice brown trout, up to two pounds, have been taken. The lake is best approached by snowsled from M77.

In 1638, Swedish colonists established Delaware's first permanent settlement.

MANISTIQUE Stephens Retiring From Ann Arbor

George Stephens, superintendent of the Manistique and Lake Superior and Ann Arbor railroad here is retiring Feb. 28.

Stephens, 65, began working for the company 44 years ago and has been superintendent since 1943.

All his years with the company have been in Manistique except three spent in the traffic department at Minneapolis, 1940-43.

Supervision here will be taken over by Allen L. Little, who has been with the railroad 20 years, serving as chief clerk in Frankfort.

Stephens, who was born in England, came to Manistique when 3 and was graduated from Manistique High School, after which he enlisted in military officers candidate school in 1918.

He is married and has four daughters, is a member of the Elks and American Legion. He served on the Manistique

George Stephens

City Council 8 years, and on the board of supervisors in the same period, and was its chairman one year.

When Stephens began working for the railroad there were nine steam engines operating. These have been replaced with two diesels. The line has 41 miles extending from Doty to Manistique and is in its second year hauling pellet ore from the Marquette range to Ford Motor Co.

In earlier years the railroad, connected with the Ann Arbor car ferry system through a dock here, hauled ore for a foundry in Cadillac and also for the former Charcoal Iron Co. in Manistique.

Hahne Official Of Bank School

MARQUETTE — Twenty-one men and women, members of the first class of the Northern Michigan School of Banking, will receive certificates of achievement at graduation ceremonies this evening at the Northland Hotel.

The class, composed of banking personnel from 13 Michigan communities and two Wisconsin cities, is completing the final phase of a two-year banking school sponsored by Northern Michigan University and the Michigan Bankers Association. Speaker at a 6:30 p. m. dinner will be J. A. Hauck, president of the Exchange Savings Bank, Mt. Pleasant.

Coordinator for the sessions on business conditions and monetary policy has been Fred H. Hahne, president of the First National Bank of Manistique.

Ice Floe Maroons Give Up Fishing

Mrs. Sherman Dewey and Mrs. William Graft, rescued from an ice floe on Indian Lake this week spent Wednesday washing and housecleaning and thus far haven't been back fishing. They have indicated they will probably "put it off" until next year.

Mrs. Dewey drove the family snowsled south toward Harrison Beach on the floe, which was about 1 1/2 blocks long, but was unable to come ashore due to open water. Ed Toyra, who summoned aid, and Warren LaBar brought them ashore in a boat. The floe was drifting east toward Copenhagen bridge and the two women were concerned that the floe might break in that area. They were fishing in about 10 feet of water when the ice section broke off.

Adolph Asps Are Honored At Reception

Sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Asp entertained at a reception for 200 guests in the Sportsmen's Club to mark the couple's 50th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Louis Hart cut the 4-tiered wedding cake. White and gold decorations with a centerpiece of yellow daffodils and snapdragons were used. Jeanne Peterson, a niece, was in charge of the guest book and June Ann Peterson, a niece, and Cynthia Asp, a granddaughter, opened gifts. Guests danced to music of the "We Three" orchestra.

In addition to Mrs. Hart, the couple's children are Albert and Herbert Asp. They have 10 grandchildren. The couple was married Feb. 19, 1916 in Manistique by Rev. Andrew Nelson. Mrs. Asp is the former Anne Peterson. Mr. Asp was born in Sweden and came to the United States in 1909. He was employed at Manistique Pulp & Paper Co. from 1918 until retirement in 1957.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hart of Grand Ledge, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Asp, Royal Oak, Carl Flodin, Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Loudermilk and son of Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kreger and family of Escanaba.

Pine Mountain Next Stop

New Record May Be Set

IRON MOUNTAIN — Ski jumping history may be rewritten here on Giant Pine Mountain on March 5-6 in a double-header including the U.S. National Championships.

With the top Americans challenged by two stars from Finland, there are bright prospects of the current North American record of 325 feet being broken. John Baltanz, of Minneapolis, who will be the leading American entrant, set that record here last year. Pressing him will be Dave Hicks, of Duluth, defending National champion, and Gene Kotlarek, also of Duluth, and the pair from Finland, Keijo Laihio and Harri Jussola.

Since Bob Roeder, of Duluth, Minn., set the new North American record in the inaugural tournament of the world's highest ski slide here in 1939, the record has been increased and set here on nine other years until the current record of 325 feet last year.

Over the years continued hill improvements permitted longer leaps and today the Pine Mountain landing hill has a safe capacity of at least 340 feet, weather permitting.

Other top contenders for the U.S. title are Dave Norby, of Madison, Wis., current member of the FIS team; Willie Erickson, former FIS team member, and Butch Wedin, former Olympian, both of Iron Mountain.

Although the Finns will jump for distance on Saturday, March 5, they will not be eligible for the U.S. title. On Sunday they will be in an open field of competitors in the Kiwanis Ski Club Invitational.

Baltanz, Kotlarek, Hicks and Norby are in Oslo, Norway, to compete for United States in the World's championships. They will fly back for the classics here.

Kotlarek is a two-time holder of the North American distance record, 318 and 322 feet at Steamboat Springs, Colo., in 1963.

Ice Yachting At Menominee

The Menominee & Marinette Ice Yacht Association will be host for two of the nation's top ice yachting events in the weekend, the International Skeeter Association regatta, and the Renegade National Championship.

Forty yachts in the two classes will sail Friday, Saturday and Sunday on the Menominee Back Bay ice sheet, an arm of Green Bay. Access is from the Silver Dome resort and the public is invited, says Commodore Roger Derusha of the host club, but guests are asked to stay off the racing course.

The races, which will be televised, will be held on Friday starting at 11 a. m. both morning and afternoon, on Saturday from 10 a. m. and in the afternoon and on Sunday from 10 a. m. and in the afternoon.

The Skeeters are open design yachts with only restriction on their sail area, which is limited to 75 square feet. The Renegades are class boats, all identical, and they carry 67 square feet of sail.

There are 10 Renegades in the M&M Ice Yacht Club fleet and two skeeters and the rest of the field will be sent by ice yachting clubs at Green Lake, Oshkosh, Madison, Lake Geneva and Pewaukee, Wis., Fox Lake, Ill., and Gull Lake and Detroit, Mich., and Toledo.

The outstanding ice yacht skippers of the Midwest are expected for the regatta, said Derusha, and the ice is in good condition and speeds of more than 100 miles an hour are expected in the races.

The Midwest leads the world in ice yacht design and some of its best boats are entered in the Marinette regatta.

Broncos Upset Toledo Rockets

TOLEDO (AP) — Bob Blohm, Western Michigan's sparkplug in a late rally, drove for a jump shot with three seconds left in a third overtime Wednesday night that upset Toledo 74-72.

The game assured Miami at least a share of the Mid-American Conference basketball championship.

The Rockets saw a seven-game MAC winning streak go up in smoke when a seven-point lead evaporated in the last seven minutes of regulation time.

John Scholtens' hook shots that helped him pile up 24 points, Blohm's 18 markers mostly in the clutch and Reggie Laceyfield's 15 led the Broncos as they hit 29 of 35 for fine 528 field goal shooting. Toledo was 28 of 63 for 450.

The Rockets commanded leads up to 26-15 during the early action and led 38-29 at halftime.

Then Blohm led a charge that Laceyfield capped with two free throws for a 62-61 Western advantage. Toledo regained the lead 64-62 but Blohm tied it 64-64 with 3:20 remaining.

The teams traded baskets in the first five-minute overtime until it was 70-70, and Toledo failed to get off a shot despite possession the last 2½ minutes. Bob Aston, who led Toledo with 22 points, scored in the second extra session but Scholtens matched it and 4:30 of scoreless stalling ensued.

In the third overtime, featuring more ball control, the Broncos finally shook Blohm loose for the clincher.

This was only the fourth MUC victory for Western in 11 games.

Northern Sixth In Cage Rating

By The Associated Press

Cheyney State, running its unbeaten string to 24 with a pair of victories, has zoomed to the top of The Associated Press small-college basketball rankings.

The Wolves from Pennsylvania took over first place from the Southern Illinois Salukis, who had led the nationwide poll for seven straight weeks. The Salukis dropped all the way to fourth after taking their fifth loss of the season, 85-83 to Indiana State Saturday night.

Five of the 14 experts on AP's panel put Cheyney first on their list. Runner-up North Dakota, 20-3, got three firsts; Grambling, 19-3, received one and stayed in third, and two went to Southern Illinois.

Sixth-ranked Northern Michigan, Abilene Christian and Colorado State College collected the three other firsts.

Indiana State climbed from ninth to fifth with its victory over Southern Illinois. North Michigan fell one spot to sixth, Tennessee State and Evansville remained seventh and eighth, Seattle Pacific moved up one place to ninth and Youngstown, beaten twice last week, went from sixth to 10th.

The Top Ten, with records through Saturday, Feb. 19, and points:

1. Cheyney State 24-0 105
2. North Dakota 20-3 89
3. Grambling 19-3 83
4. Southern Ill. 15-5 74
5. Indiana State 22-3 61
6. Northern Mich. 15-4 58
7. Tenn. State 17-3 40
8. Evansville 16-7 31
9. Seattle Pacific 22-3 26
10. Youngstown 17-3 24

Johnson Sees Tide Of Battle Turned In Viet

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson, pledging no "mindless escalation" of the war in Viet Nam, says "the tide of battle has been turned there."

Johnson, in a national television-radio address from a hotel ballroom here, said Wednesday night the United States fights in Viet Nam for a limited objective — "to prevent the success of aggression"—and is using the minimum necessary force "under what I believe is careful control."

The war, he said, never will be expanded into a direct conflict with Communist China "by any act of ours—and not if there is any reason left behind the wild words from Peiping."

Reflecting some of the optimism that has seemed evident among top Washington officials in recent weeks, Johnson said "the tide of battle has been turned. While he did not elaborate, he apparently based the statement on reports of mounting Communist casualties and defections."

Heckler Heard

Johnson's address in accepting the annual national Freedom Award of Freedom House, a nonpartisan organization, represented a reply to critics of his Viet Nam policy.

And even as he began to speak, the voice of dissent was heard.

A man in the formally attired audience rose at the back of the ballroom and shouted, "Mr. President, peace in Viet Nam."

Secret Service agents and police hustled him out. Identified as James Peck, 51, of the War Registers League, he had paid $25 for a dinner ticket and, before his outburst, had doffed his tie and tux jacket and unbuckled his shirt to expose a tee shirt emblazoned "Peace in Viet Nam."

Peck was charged with resisting arrest and disrupting a lawful meeting. Bond was set at $3,000.

Almost simultaneously, sirens were heard inside the ballroom as a minor fire broke out along New York Central Railroad tracks under the hotel—the Waldorf-Astoria.

Limited Objective

And outside, some 3,500 anti-war pickets marched—well beyond Johnson's view at all times—chanting "LBJ, how many children did you kill today?" and "Burn draft cards, not children."

The President, in his speech, replied to questions raised frequently in recent hearings by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

These were Johnson's main points:

The United States fights for a limited objective, will not engage in mindless escalation, will give its troops all the help they need, will try to avoid war with Communist China, seeks social and political reform in South Viet Nam, will abide by the results of any free election there, and will continue searching for peace.

How long will the war last? Said Johnson: "To that question—in all honesty—I can give no answer tonight... If the aggressor persists in Viet Nam, the struggle may be long."

Blood Donors For Pat Roman Asked To Sign

Miss Pat Roman of Wells, is waiting in the University of Minnesota Hospital at Minneapolis in hope for a bright new future with a miracle of science in a kidney transplant.

The Delta County Red Cross Blood Bank is cooperating in the survival project.

Miss Roman has been at the University Hospital for two months, relying on the assistance of an artificial kidney and a regular blood transfusion. She has received 10 blood transfusions so far and is hopeful that the transplant surgery can be done soon.

Miss Roman is well known in the Escanaba community. She was secretary at Holy Name High School for a time and when she entered the hospital was secretary to Msgr. O'Neil D'Amour, former Escanaba who is superintendent of education of the Catholic Diocese of Marquette, and pastor of the Catholic Church at Norway.

Mrs. Edward Olsen, blood procurement chairman of the Delta County Red Cross Blood Bank, said that the hospital which is caring for Miss Roman requires replacement of every unit of blood administered to her with two units. The Red Cross blood program replaces only on a one-for-one basis. The local Red Cross requests, said Mrs. Olsen, that anyone wishing to donate for replacement of the second units for Miss Roman sign up as a replacement donor for the bloodmobile visit to Escanaba March 2 and 3.

In Georgetown Hospital there is a young Peruvian pilot who shares Miss Roman's hopeful waiting, said Mrs. Olsen. Lt. Rudolfo Devercelli, 27, has a unique medical history. He is believed to have lived longer with no kidneys than any other person. Both kidneys were removed in December, 1964.

For 11 months until he received one transplant kidney last October his survival depended upon blood transfusions and an artificial kidney machine.

Lt. Devercelli has received more than 200 units of whole blood and is very appreciative of the many A+ blood donors who are helping him in his effort to live and regain health.

Americans Safe

A United States Embassy spokesman said it was not believed that Americans here are in danger but advised them to stay indoors. The 122 Peace Corps personnel in Ghana were reported safe, the embassy said. Nkrumah, 56, was a nationalist leader during Ghana's days as a British colony and he was prime minister when the country gained independence in 1957. He had Parliament name him president for life in 1962. He calls himself Osagyefo — "The Redeemer."

Nkrumah took direct command of the 10,000-man army last September following rumors that some generals wanted to depose him.

Ghana, a member of the British Commonwealth, has a population of seven million. It is a steamy country of 92,100 square miles of Africa's west coast.

Detroit Mayor, Williams May Run For Seat

Leaders indicated they also expect the race to be between Griffin and Williams.

In 1960 when Williams retired as governor, Lord Democrats helped then-Lt. Gov. John Swainson wrest the gubernatorial nomination from Secretary of State James Hare who was backed by Williams.

Scars from that conflict still appear periodically — an irony since a great portion of labor apparently has swung to Williams' side.

Williams said Wednesday he will canvass party workers and leaders and then will announce in Detroit whether he will run.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—An attempt to launch the ESSA 2 weather satellite was postponed today when a power cable fell away from the Delta booster rocket 44 seconds too soon. No new launching date was set immediately.

Candy Framed, Lifer Declares

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The state's star witness against Melvin Lane Powers was quoted in testimony today as saying "I wouldn't know him if I met him in the street."

The testimony came from a defense witness, wiry, thin-faced prison lifer, Virgil Nelson Halford, who claims that Candace Mossler and Powers are being framed in the 1964 slaying of her multimillionaire husband. The convict says he was told of a "deal."

Halford, 29, a child rapist, returned to the murder trial's witness stand today, his testimony intended by the defense to offset that of a prison mate, Billy Frank Mulvey. The latter starred for the state on the same witness stand.

"Didn't Billy Frank Mulvey tell you he shared the same cellblock with Melvin Lane Powers?" Halford was asked.

"No sir," the defense witness replied. "He told me he didn't know him and wouldn't know him if he met him on the street."

Luce County Jail Ordered Closed By March 1st

NEWBERRY — The Luce County jail has been ordered closed by March 1, according to Sheriff Russell W. Hild.

Hild said he had been notified by Gus Harrison of the Michigan Corrections Commission in Lansing, that the jail does not meet requirements established by state law.

Currently, prisoners are only kept overnight in the jail. If longer detention is required they are transferred to the Chippewa County jail at Sault Ste. Marie where Luce County pays room and board.

According to the Corrections Commission, the Luce County jail is a fire hazard, has no visiting facilities, is inadequate in lighting, bathing facilities, kitchen, plumbing and area per prisoner. The commission said it is also impossible to segregate prisoners in the jail.

Luce County is currently studying means for providing a new jail, but no positive action has been taken.

St. Mary's To Conduct Week-Long Mission

HERMANVILLE—A week-long mission will be conducted at St. Mary's Church, Hermanville opening at 8 a. m. mass on Sunday, Feb. 27 and closing at the 10 a. m. mass Sunday, March 6.

Father James O'Connell of Ligouri, will deliver the sermons. Father O'Connell is of the Redemptorist order.

Sunday masses will be at 8 and 10 a. m. Weekly morning masses will be at 7:30 and the evening masses and services will begin at 7 p. m. There will be a short sermon after each mass, the principal address being part of the evening service. One portion of the program will be devoted to the grade and high school students.

Confessions will be heard each evening after the service and there will be an opportunity for everyone to go to confession during the week.

Coinciding with the mission will be the forty hours devotion. This will open with the Tuesday evening services and close on Sunday morning. Adoration will be daily from the morning mass until the closing of the evening services on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There will be no nocturnal adoration. Parishoners are requested to designate their preferred hours.

Hat Party
At a recent meeting of the St. Ann Altar Society, members agreed to sponsor a Hat Party on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 1, 2 from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. in the basement of the Sacred Heart Church.

There will be 500 different ladies spring and summer hats to choose from. Lunch will be served throughout the two days. Proceeds will be for the benefit of the Altar Society.

1,800 Cars To Go, Tag Deadline Is Next Monday

The deadline on 1966 automobile license plates is midnight next Monday and there are still about 1,800 Delta County cars without 1966 plates, says Claude Tobin, Delta agent for the Secretary of State's office. His office is at the Greyhound Bus Station, 615 Luding-St.

Delta County has about 7,500 cars.

Tobin said that sales to date had registered 318 new cars.

Plate buyers need their registration and proof of liability insurance in the form of a policy, a certificate or a letter from the insurance company.

Vacationers Hold 'Escanaba Days' In Southland

Vacationing Escanaba area persons, gathering sun tans in the Southland, get together occasionally for informal "Escanaba days", according to reports from Florida and Texas.

Earlier this month at Harlingen in the southern tip of Texas, where some folks from Michigan had settled in the Rio Grande Valley a few years ago, there was a Michigan gathering attended by some vacationers from the "Winter Wonderland" state.

Among those attending the reunion from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Olson and Mr. and Mrs. William Weycher.

In Florida recently there was a gathering of vacationers and former Escanabans at Cape Coral, where the six couples had a "grand time" visiting and renewing acquaintance.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Les Olson, Mr. and Mrs. John Lemmer, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Peck, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. John Holland and Mr. and Mrs. Don Northup.

For the sake of the record, Escanaba area people who are not on Southern vacations have also enjoyed a rather mild and snowless winter—so far, at least. Snow is deeper and temperatures are lower in Milwaukee and Chicago than in Escanaba.

A pound of sugar in 17th Century England cost as much as 14 chickens.

British Await Hanoi Reply In Peace Talks

MOSCOW (AP) — A meeting of the British disarmament minister, Lord Chalfont, and the head of Hanoi's diplomatic mission in Moscow may spark a dialogue between the two countries on a Viet Nam peace conference.

Qualified sources said North Viet Nam's envoy Lee Chang promised to clarify some of Hanoi's conditions for peace talks at the surprise four-hour meeting with Chalfont Wednesday.

British sources said the next step hinges on North Viet Nam's reply.

Some British authorities think Hanoi may relax one of its conditions—that the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong, serve as the sole representative of South Viet Nam at any peace parley. The point has been rejected by the U.S. and South Vietnamese governments.

Chalfont is in Moscow with British Prime Minister Harold Wilson who leaves today after three days of talks with Soviet leaders.

Wilson ordered Chalfont to meet with Lee after he reportedly made no headway in trying to persuade Soviet leaders to help sponsor peace talks.

Britain and the Soviet Union are cochairmen of the 1954 Geneva Peace Conference that divided France's former Indochina empire of which Viet Nam was a part.

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin was informed of Chalfont's mission.

There were some unexplained last-minute changes in Wilson's plans today as the Soviet-British exchange entered its final day.

A scheduled meeting between Wilson and Kosygin was postponed until afternoon. This aroused speculation that Kosygin wanted time to consult with his colleagues on Wilson's nuclear proposals.

A scheduled news conference also was postponed.

British sources reported that at his meeting with Kosygin Wednesday, Wilson called for talks by the five nuclear nations on a world treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons.

Qualified sources said Kosygin was considering the suggestion.
